

UNITED STATES
CIVILIAN BOARD OF CONTRACT APPEALS

March 15, 2012

CBCA 2612-RELO

In the Matter of WARREN M. GRAY

Warren M. Gray, Bethesda, MD, Claimant.

John A. Collins, Adjudicator, Department of State, Washington, DC, appearing for Department of State.

DANIELS, Board Judge (Chairman).

Foreign Service Officer Warren M. Gray claimed reimbursement for costs he incurred in traveling from his assignment in Baku, Azerbaijan, to Florida for home leave prior to assuming a new post in Washington, D.C. The Department of State initially paid only some of the amount sought.

Upon further reflection, the Department agrees with the claimant and has paid him the amount which had been in question. The claimant has asked us to dismiss the case.

Accordingly, the case is dismissed.

STEPHEN M. DANIELS
Board Judge
